Bristol Concert Orchestra with Alexandra Wood, conductor Stefan Hofkes

Saturday 30 June 2012, 7:30pm at St George's Bristol

Bruch Scottish Fantasy, Sibelius, Ravel & Lord of the Rings

Alexandra Wood

An evening of fantasy and adventure awaits: from highland-inspired violin wizardry with star violinist Alexandra Wood in Bruch's Scottish Fantasy, Nordic mystery courtesy of Sibelius with En Saga, and the sumptuous orchestration of Ravel's score to the Nymph-laden ballet Daphnis et Chloé before a trip to Middle-earth featuring music from the epic blockbusting Lord of The Rings films.

Tickets available from St George's Bristol:
0845 40 24 001 www.stgeorgesbristol.co.uk

Priced £13 (£11), £11 (£9), £9 (£7) & £8 (£6)

Children £1.

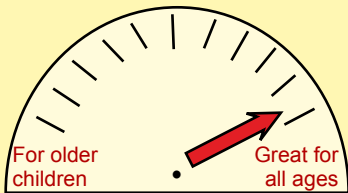

All adult prices include a £1 optional donation to
St George's Bristol

There will be a retiring collection for
St Peter's Hospice

Alexandra Wood is a BCO favourite, having given several stunning performances with us in recent years, and is fast establishing herself as one of the most dynamic, versatile violinists of her generation.

The BCO child-friendly-ometer!

This combination of fantastical, tuneful & thrilling music should be enjoyed by children of all ages.
